

MORE WAYS TO REACH YOUR AUDIENCE

Oncology Practice offers busy oncologists and cancer care professionals easy access to the latest on cancer treatments, emerging trends, and practice economics. Updated daily content and a monthly, all-digital report includes commentary and analysis, giving busy clinicians news they can use at their convenience, with the ability to quickly share content via email and social media. The digital report displays a user-friendly print-like format, but enhances meeting coverage and journal reports with both audio and video features. Each issue includes clinical developments arranged by tumor site, commentary from thought leaders and patient advocates, updates on health care policy and regulations that affect the physician's practice, and links to related content, online exclusives, and other resources.
